AUBURN ADVENTIST ACADEMY
A CO-ED HIGH SCHOOL

Reflections. . .

Reflections . . .

The reminiscing of the school year--the happy times, the sad times--all fused into your memory to last a lifetime.

Reflections. . .

The pondering of the past
as it relates to the future, directing the formation of
our whole existence.

Reflections . . .

The highlights of a school year, the ever-present memories of days gone by, the ever-changing panorama of life--etched in the recesses of our minds.

Reflections. . .

The song of a school year--
each moment a note, each experience a chord.

Reflections . . .

Just as a mirror reflects what passes it, so we reflect what we have experienced.

512 Students Survive Registration Lines

Zeta Kappa Banquet Features German Motif

Sword ferns, daisies, and baby breath decorated the tables. Pink paper German boys and girls held hands around lighted candles. Scenes of Alpine mountains, villages, statuary, and fine works of architecture flashed on a large screen on the west wall of the cafeteria. Grace was offered in German by Herr Fisher followed by a German meal which included such typical Deutsch food as Sauerkraut and W'urste. The evening's entertainment was performed against a backdrop of German hills and farms, where the featured guest, Mrs. Josephine Cunningham Edwards, related humorous experiences of her mission life. The girls' chorus concluded the program with "O Du Lieber Augustin" and "Du, Du, Liegst Mir Im Herzen."

Week of Prayer Climaxed by Baptism

Hard Times Evident at Fall Festival

Balloons, pumpkins, cotton candy, ragged costumes, and booths contributed to the carnival autumn atmosphere of Fall Festival. Boysenberry pie-eating contests added excitement, one ending in a spontaneous pie-throwing battle. A gigantic slide, constructed by the metal shop department, attracted much attention as customers—some dauntless, some screaming and wild-eyed—whooshed to the ground. At the Harris Pine Mill dunking booth, faculty were plunged into a tub of water each time an “enemy” hit the target with a ball. Harry Sharley and Vicki Smith won the prizes for the best costumes. Several musical numbers were performed by students to conclude the evening’s entertainment.

"Memories" featured at Amateur Hour

Casa Loma's Amateur Hour was a reflection of the past, as prize winners from by-gone Amateur Hours again performed. The painstaking work, put in by the Boys' Club members, was evident in the superb lighting and backdrop. This year's program was a unique experience, reliving memories of the past and creating new ones for the future.

look into our new world.

Meet the Northwest Medical Foundation, an organization which provides central management and development services to healthcare institutions in the North Pacific Union. Its activities include finding ways to expand the Adventist health work by developing new medical facilities and serving as an information clearinghouse for physicians and other healthcare professionals who are interested in serving the Northwest. One way the Foundation is doing this is through VertiCare, a new program which brings modern outpatient facilities and physicians into areas where there is a shortage of healthcare services. VertiCare centers will permit physicians to maintain their private practices while receiving total management services, the assistance of paramedical professionals, and automated medical systems — all working together to give physicians more time to treat more patients. Northwest Medical Foundation is creating new opportunities for you in our world of medicine.
